GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Nature of the booking

DOWNWINDERS spots are limited and assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Each booking secures a place within a planned logistical operation, so availability depends on the number of participants.

2. Customer cancellation

Cancellations made more than 48 hours in advance can be rescheduled at no cost.

Cancellations made less than 48 hours in advance are non-refundable.

3. No-show

If you do not arrive at the meeting point at the scheduled time, the booking will be considered used and no refund or rescheduling will be offered.

4. Spot transfer

You may transfer your spot to another person who meets the required skill level, provided you notify Surf Center Tarifa at least 24 hours in advance.

5. Weather conditions

If conditions allow the activity to take place, even if not optimal, the downwinder will go ahead and no refunds will be issued.

If Surf Center Tarifa cancels due to unsafe conditions, you will be offered a reschedule or a full refund.

6. Minimum participants

A minimum number of participants is required for the activity. If this number is not reached, a reschedule or full refund will be offered.

7. Nature of the service

The booking corresponds to a sports experience with associated logistics. Not using your reserved spot does not automatically entitle you to a refund.

8. Cancellation due to force majeure

Downwinders and Surf Center Tarifa reserve the right to cancel the activity due to circumstances beyond their control, without any financial compensation to the client.
